NOTE: Quantity discounts available. All excess and overstock material is warehoused at our facility in Cassville, Missouri. All ACM will be inspected by Arning prior to sale; any flaws in condition will be documented at that time and disclosed to customer for approval before purchase. All ACM is purchased "as is," and not subject to original manufacturer's warranty. Customer should thoroughly inspect ACM prior to taking possession of purchase. Arning is not responsible for damage that may occur during shipping. All sales final.

* Disclaimer: due to variances in printer output, screen calibration and resolution, the colors on your screen or in print may not accurately represent the actual color sample. Please visit the APOLIC® and Arconic® websites for samples or additional product information. Note that some colors may be discontinued.

 Can be post painted

 Same color as APOLIC® kgr and trd red

 As stainless is a natural metal with no finish, we do not do a visual match between batches the expectation is that the visual appearance will change over time
